

Local Government REIMAGINED CONFERENCES

BECOME A SPONSOR TODAY!

ICMA has launched a new conference series, the Local Government Reimagined Conferences (formerly known as ICMA Regional Conferences), to better prepare local government public administrators and their staff to proactively address current and future issues most critical to effective local governance.

In four locations across the United States, ICMA will bring together hundreds of solutions-driven local government stakeholders for robust training and thought-provoking discussions and learning. Get ready for new conference experiences that will enlighten and challenge your understanding of the evolution of local government.
